COMPLAINT

COLLECTIVE ACTION UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

ECF Case

Plaintiff Marxlenin Galindo Garcia (“Plaintiff Galindo” or “Mr. Galindo”), individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, by and through his attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon his knowledge and belief, and as against Jan Agha Corp. (d/b/a Kennedy Fried Chicken), (“Defendant Corporation”), Abdullah Nasar, Abdoul Raziq a.k.a. Abdul Kayum, Mohammed Doe, Najit Doe, and Abu Bakari, (“Individual Defendants”), (collectively, “Defendants”), alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff Galindo is a former employee of Defendants Jan Agha Corp. (d/b/a Kennedy Fried Chicken), Abdullah Nasar, Abdoul Raziq a.k.a. Abdul Kayum, Mohammed Doe, Najit Doe, and Abu Bakari.

2. Defendants own, operate, or control a fast food restaurant, located at 2280 Jerome Avenue, Bronx, NY 10453, under the name “Kennedy Fried Chicken”.

3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendants Abdullah Nasar, Abdoul Raziq a.k.a. Abdul Kayum, Mohammed Doe, Najit Doe, and Abu Bakari, serve or served as owners, managers, principals, or agents of Defendant Corporation and, through this corporate entity, operate or operated the fast food restaurant as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiff Galindo was employed as a cook and cashier at the fast food restaurant located at 2280 Jerome Avenue, Bronx, NY 10453.

5. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff Galindo worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage, overtime and spread of hours compensation for the hours that he worked.

6. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked, and failed to pay Plaintiff Galindo appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

7. Further, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Galindo the required “spread of hours” pay for any day in which he had to work over 10 hours a day.

8. Defendants’ conduct extended beyond Plaintiff Galindo to all other similarly situated employees.

9. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Galindo and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

10. Plaintiff Galindo now brings this action on behalf of himself, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. (“FLSA”), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the “NYLL”), and the “spread of hours” and overtime wage orders of the New York Commissioner of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. tit. 12, § 146-1.6 (herein the “Spread of Hours Wage Order”), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys’ fees and costs.

11. Plaintiff Galindo seeks certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of himself, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff Galindo’s state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

13. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operated a fast food restaurant located in this district. Further, Plaintiff Galindo was employed by Defendants in this district.

PARTIES

Plaintiff

14. Plaintiff Marxlenin Galindo Garcia (“Plaintiff Galindo” or “Mr. Galindo”) is an adult individual residing in Bronx County, New York.

15. Plaintiff Galindo was employed by Defendants at Kennedy Fried Chicken from approximately August 17, 2019 until on or about November 25, 2020.

16. Plaintiff Galindo consents to being a party plaintiff pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), and brings these claims based upon the allegations herein as a representative party of a prospective class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

Defendants

17. At all relevant times, Defendants owned, operated, or controlled a fast food restaurant, located at 2280 Jerome Avenue, Bronx, NY 10453 under the name “Kennedy Fried Chicken”.

18. Upon information and belief, Jan Agha Corp. (d/b/a Kennedy Fried Chicken) is a domestic corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York. Upon information and belief, it maintains its principal place of business at 2280 Jerome Avenue, Bronx, NY 10453.

19. Defendant Abdullah Nasar is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business in this judicial district during the relevant time period. Defendant Abdullah Nasar is sued individually in his capacity as owner, officer and/or agent of Defendant Corporation. Defendant Abdullah Nasar possesses operational control over Defendant Corporation, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporation, and controls significant functions of Defendant Corporation. He determines the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiff Galindo, establishes the schedules of the employees, maintains employee records, and has the authority to hire and fire employees.

20. Defendant Abdoul Raziq a.k.a. Abdul Kayum is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business in this judicial district during the relevant time period. Defendant Abdoul Raziq a.k.a. Abdul Kayum is sued individually in his capacity as owner, officer and/or agent of Defendant Corporation. Defendant Abdoul Raziq a.k.a. Abdul Kayum possesses operational control over Defendant Corporation, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporation, and controls significant functions of Defendant Corporation. He determines the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiff Galindo, establishes the schedules of the employees, maintains employee records, and has the authority to hire and fire employees.

21. Defendant Mohammed Doe is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business in this judicial district during the relevant time period. Defendant Mohammed Doe is sued individually in his capacity as owner, officer and/or agent of Defendant Corporation. Defendant Mohammed Doe possesses operational control over Defendant Corporation, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporation, and controls significant functions of Defendant Corporation. He determines the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiff Galindo, establishes the schedules of the employees, maintains employee records, and has the authority to hire and fire employees.

22. Defendant Najit Doe is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business in this judicial district during the relevant time period. Defendant Najit Doe is sued individually in his capacity as owner, officer and/or agent of Defendant Corporation. Defendant Najit Doe possesses operational control over Defendant Corporation, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporation, and controls significant functions of Defendant Corporation. He determines the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiff Galindo, establishes the schedules of the employees, maintains employee records, and has the authority to hire and fire employees.

23. Defendant Abu Bakari is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business in this judicial district during the relevant time period. Defendant Abu Bakari is sued individually in his capacity as owner, officer and/or agent of Defendant Corporation. Defendant Abu Bakari possesses operational control over Defendant Corporation, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporation, and controls significant functions of Defendant Corporation. He determines the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiff Galindo, establishes the schedules of the employees, maintains employee records, and has the authority to hire and fire employees.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

24. Defendants operate a fast food restaurant located in the Morris Heights section of the Bronx in New York City.

25. Individual Defendants, Abdullah Nasar, Abdoul Raziq a.k.a. Abdul Kayum, Mohammed Doe, Najit Doe, and Abu Bakari, possess operational control over Defendant Corporation, possess ownership interests in Defendant Corporation, and control significant functions of Defendant Corporation.

26. Defendants are associated and joint employers, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

27. Each Defendant possessed substantial control over Plaintiff Galindo's (and other similarly situated employees') working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of Plaintiff Galindo, and all similarly situated individuals, referred to herein.

28. Defendants jointly employed Plaintiff Galindo (and all similarly situated employees) and are Plaintiff Galindo's (and all similarly situated employees') employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and the NYLL.

29. In the alternative, Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiff Galindo and/or similarly situated individuals.

30. Upon information and belief, Individual Defendants Abdullah Nasar, Abdoul Raziq a.k.a. Abdul Kayum, Mohammed Doe, Najit Doe, and Abu Bakari operate Defendant Corporation as either an alter ego of themselves and/or fail to operate Defendant Corporation as an entity legally separate and apart from themselves, by among other things:

- a) failing to adhere to the corporate formalities necessary to operate Defendant Corporation as a Corporation,
- b) defectively forming or maintaining the corporate entity of Defendant Corporation, by, amongst other things, failing to hold annual meetings or maintaining appropriate corporate records,
- c) transferring assets and debts freely as between all Defendants,
- d) operating Defendant Corporation for their own benefit as the sole or majority shareholders,
- e) operating Defendant Corporation for their own benefit and maintaining control over this corporation as a closed Corporation,
- f) intermingling assets and debts of their own with Defendant Corporation,
- g) diminishing and/or transferring assets of Defendant Corporation to avoid full liability as necessary to protect their own interests, and
- h) Other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

31. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiff Galindo's employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff Galindo, controlled the terms and conditions of employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff Galindo's services.

32. In each year from 2019 to 2020, Defendants, both separately and jointly, had a gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

33. In addition, upon information and belief, Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce. As an example, numerous items that were used in the fast food restaurant on a daily basis are goods produced outside of the State of New York.

Individual Plaintiff

34. Plaintiff Galindo is a former employee of Defendants who was employed as a cook and a cashier.

35. Plaintiff Galindo seeks to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. 216(b).

Plaintiff Marxlenin Galindo Garcia

36. Plaintiff Galindo was employed by Defendants from approximately August 17, 2019 until on or about November 25, 2020.

37. Defendants employed Plaintiff Galindo as a cook and a cashier.

38. Plaintiff Galindo regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as food and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

39. Plaintiff Galindo's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

40. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Galindo regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

41. From approximately August 2019 until on or about November 25, 2020, Plaintiff Galindo worked from approximately 6:00 p.m. until on or about 4:00 a.m., Sundays, Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays and from approximately 6:00 p.m. until on or about 5:00 a.m. on Fridays and Saturdays (typically 62 hours per week).

42. Throughout his employment, Defendants paid Plaintiff Galindo his wages in cash.

43. From approximately August 2019 until on or about December 2019, Defendants paid Plaintiff Galindo $10.00 per hour.

44. From approximately December 2019 until on or about May 2020, defendants paid Plaintiff Galindo $11.00 per hour.

45. From approximately June 2020 until on or about November 25, 2020, Defendants paid Plaintiff Galindo $12.00 per hour.

46. Defendants never granted Plaintiff Galindo any breaks or meal periods of any kind.

47. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Galindo regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

48. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Galindo an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

49. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Galindo, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Galindo's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

50. Defendants required Plaintiff Galindo to purchase "tools of the trade" with his own funds—including 8 work shirts, and 8 work hats.

Defendants' General Employment Practices

51. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Galindo (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying him appropriate minimum wage, spread of hours pay and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

52. Plaintiff Galindo was a victim of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying him the wages he was owed for the hours he worked.

53. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff Galindo not receiving payment for all his hours worked, and resulted in Plaintiff Galindo's effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

54. Defendants paid Plaintiff Galindo his wages in cash.

55. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

56. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff Galindo (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff Galindo properly for his full hours worked.

57. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

58. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiff Galindo and other similarly situated former workers.

59. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Galindo and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

60. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Galindo and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION CLAIMS

61. Plaintiff Galindo brings his FLSA minimum wage, overtime compensation and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons (the "FLSA Class members"), i.e., persons who are or were employed by Defendants or any of them, on or after the date that is three years before the filing of the complaint in this case (the "FLSA Class Period").

62. At all relevant times, Plaintiff Galindo and other members of the FLSA Class were similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required minimum wage, overtime pay at a one and one-half their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek under the FLSA and willfully failing to keep records under the FLSA.

63. The claims of Plaintiff Galindo stated herein are similar to those of the other employees.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE MINIMUM WAGE PROVISIONS OF THE FLSA

64. Plaintiff Galindo repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

65. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were Plaintiff Galindo's employers within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203(d). Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff Galindo (and the FLSA Class Members), controlled the terms and conditions of their employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for their employment.

66. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were engaged in commerce or in an industry or activity affecting commerce.

67. Defendants constitute an enterprise within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203 (r-s).

68. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Galindo (and the FLSA Class members) at the applicable minimum hourly rate, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 206(a).

69. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff Galindo (and the FLSA Class members) at the applicable minimum hourly rate was willful within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

70. Plaintiff Galindo (and the FLSA Class members) were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE OVERTIME PROVISIONS OF THE FLSA

71. Plaintiff Galindo repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

72. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were Plaintiff Galindo's employers (and employers of the putative FLSA Class members) within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203(d). Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff Galindo (and the FLSA Class members), controlled the terms and conditions of employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for his employment.

73. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were engaged in commerce or in an industry or activity affecting commerce.

74. Defendants constitute an enterprise within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203 (r-s).

75. Defendants, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 207(a)(1), failed to pay Plaintiff Galindo (and the FLSA Class members) overtime compensation at a rate of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a work week.

76. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff Galindo (and the FLSA Class members), overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

77. Plaintiff Galindo (and the FLSA Class members) were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE NEW YORK MINIMUM WAGE ACT

78. Plaintiff Galindo repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

79. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were Plaintiff Galindo's employers within the meaning of the N.Y. Lab. Law §§ 2 and 651. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff Galindo, controlled the terms and conditions of his employment, and determined the rates and methods of any compensation in exchange for his employment.

80. Defendants, in violation of NYLL § 652(1) and the supporting regulations of the New York State Department of Labor, paid Plaintiff Galindo less than the minimum wage.

81. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff Galindo the minimum wage was willful within the meaning of N.Y. Lab. Law § 663.

82. Plaintiff Galindo was damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE OVERTIME PROVISIONS

OF THE NEW YORK STATE LABOR LAW

83. Plaintiff Galindo repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

84. Defendants, in violation of N.Y. Lab. Law § 190 et seq., and supporting regulations of the New York State Department of Labor, failed to pay Plaintiff Galindo overtime compensation at rates of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a work week.

85. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff Galindo overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of N.Y. Lab. Law § 663.

86. Plaintiff Galindo was damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE SPREAD OF HOURS WAGE ORDER

OF THE NEW YORK COMMISSIONER OF LABOR

87. Plaintiff Galindo repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

88. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Galindo one additional hour's pay at the basic minimum wage rate before allowances for each day Plaintiff Galindo's spread of hours exceeded ten hours in violation of NYLL §§ 650 et seq. and 12 N.Y.C.R.R. §§ 146-1.6.

89. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff Galindo an additional hour's pay for each day Plaintiff Galindo's spread of hours exceeded ten hours was willful within the meaning of NYLL § 663.

90. Plaintiff Galindo was damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE NOTICE AND RECORDKEEPING

REQUIREMENTS OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW

91. Plaintiff Galindo repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

92. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Galindo with a written notice, in English , containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by NYLL §195(1).

93. Defendants are liable to Plaintiff Galindo in the amount of $5,000, together with costs and attorneys' fees.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF THE WAGE STATEMENT PROVISIONS

OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW

94. Plaintiff Galindo repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

95. With each payment of wages, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Galindo with an accurate statement listing each of the following: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL 195(3).

96. Defendants are liable to Plaintiff Galindo in the amount of $5,000, together with costs and attorneys' fees.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

RECOVERY OF EQUIPMENT COSTS

97. Plaintiff Galindo repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

98. Defendants required Plaintiff Galindo to pay, without reimbursement, the costs and expenses for purchasing and maintaining equipment and "tools of the trade" required to perform his job, further reducing his wages in violation of the FLSA and NYLL. 29 U.S.C. § 206(a); 29 C.F.R. § 531.35; N.Y. Lab. Law §§ 193 and 198-b.

99. Plaintiff Galindo was damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Galindo respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment against Defendants by:

(a) Designating this action as a collective action and authorizing prompt issuance of notice pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) to all putative class members apprising them of the pendency of this action, and permitting them to promptly file consents to be Plaintiffs in the FLSA claims in this action;

(b) Declaring that Defendants violated the minimum wage provisions of, and associated rules and regulations under, the FLSA as to Plaintiff Galindo and the FLSA Class members;

(c) Declaring that Defendants violated the overtime wage provisions of, and associated rules and regulations under, the FLSA as to Plaintiff Galindo and the FLSA Class members;

(d) Declaring that Defendants violated the recordkeeping requirements of, and associated rules and regulations under, the FLSA with respect to Plaintiff Galindo's and the FLSA Class members' compensation, hours, wages, and any deductions or credits taken against wages;

(e) Declaring that Defendants' violations of the provisions of the FLSA were willful as to Plaintiff Galindo and the FLSA Class members;

(f) Awarding Plaintiff Galindo and the FLSA Class members damages for the amount of unpaid minimum wage, overtime compensation and damages for any improper deductions or credits taken against wages under the FLSA as applicable;

(g) Awarding Plaintiff Galindo and the FLSA Class members liquidated damages in an amount equal to 100% of his damages for the amount of unpaid minimum wage, overtime compensation, and damages for any improper deductions or credits taken against wages under the FLSA as applicable pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b);

(h) Declaring that Defendants violated the minimum wage provisions of, and rules and orders promulgated under, the NYLL as to Plaintiff Galindo;

(i) Declaring that Defendants violated the overtime wage provisions of, and rules and orders promulgated under, the NYLL as to Plaintiff Galindo;

(j) Declaring that Defendants violated the spread-of-hours requirements of the NYLL and supporting regulations as to Plaintiff Galindo;

(k) Declaring that Defendants violated the notice and recordkeeping requirements of the NYLL with respect to Plaintiff Galindo's compensation, hours, wages and any deductions or credits taken against wages;

(l) Declaring that Defendants' violations of the provisions of the NYLL and spread of hours wage order were willful as to Plaintiff Galindo;

(m) Awarding Plaintiff Galindo damages for the amount of unpaid minimum wage, overtime compensation, and for any improper deductions or credits taken against wages, as well as awarding spread of hours pay under the NYLL as applicable

(n) Awarding Plaintiff Galindo damages for Defendants' violation of the NYLL notice and recordkeeping provisions, pursuant to NYLL §§198(1-b), 198(1-d);

(o) Awarding Plaintiff Galindo liquidated damages in an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the total amount of minimum wage, overtime compensation and spread of hours pay shown to be owed pursuant to NYLL § 663 as applicable; and liquidated damages pursuant to NYLL § 198(3);

(p) Awarding Plaintiff Galindo and the FLSA Class members pre-judgment and post-judgment interest as applicable;

(q) Awarding Plaintiff Galindo and the FLSA Class members the expenses incurred in this action, including costs and attorneys' fees;

(r) Providing that if any amounts remain unpaid upon the expiration of ninety days following issuance of judgment, or ninety days after expiration of the time to appeal and no appeal is then pending, whichever is later, the total amount of judgment shall automatically increase by fifteen percent, as required by NYLL § 198(4); and

(s) All such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff Galindo demands a trial by jury on all issues triable by a jury.
